

Narrowing set of discovered objects

Table of contents

- Activity Definition(s)
- Scholars' Stories (scenarios)
- Tools (examples)
- Related Collections/Content (examples)
- Applicable Standards or Standards Bodies
- Notes, comments, related activities, concerns

In creating or augmenting an Activity Definition, please be familiar with the [Instructions. Italicized instructions on this page may (should) be edited out as the sections are completed.]

go back to Activity Definitions page

Narrowing set of discovered objects

Keywords: consider, aggregate, annotate

Activity Definition(s)

Clearly articulating project hypothesis or its key problematics and carefully selecting which discovered objects best fit under or address the project's central concern.

Scholars' Stories (scenarios)

- LINKS to Scholars' Stories

Tools (examples)

Optional: examples of tools that perform some part or all of the defined activity, ideally with links to relevant project or vendor web sites

Tool name	What it does	Relevant links

Related Collections/Content (examples)

Optional: examples of collections / digital content / digital resources that could be involved in part or all of the defined activity, with links to relevant repository or site where available

Collection/content name	Collection/content description	Relevant links
-------------------------	--------------------------------	----------------

Applicable Standards or Standards Bodies

Optional: examples of standards or standards-bodies applicable to the defined activity

Standard name / body	What it governs/regulates/standardizes - What it's for	Relevant links

Notes, comments, related activities, concerns

- Optional: catch-all for additional information relevant to this activity's definition*

go back to Activity Definitions page