

Templates

BPS Development Meeting Notes | Task List

Because much of the Uruk legal corpus is boilerplate text, roles and relationships are readily determined from patterns that inhere to specific transaction types (and to the legal genre in general). Templates may provide guidance to identifying those roles and relationships. Templates are being developed to simplify the identification of roles in texts of these types:

2. Quitclaims
3. Sale of prebends
